

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ANGLOPHONE SOUTH ASIAN LITERATURE – AN INSIGHT

One Day International Conference on Anglophone South Asian Literature – An Insight was organized by the department on 27th January 2020.

The inaugural session was presided by the Patron, Rev. Dr. Sr. Mary Hilda, Principal, and Dr. J. Ragu Antony, Head and Associate Professor, Department of English, Don Bosco College, Keela Eral. Mrs. I. Angeline Priya, Seminar Convener, Head of the Department welcomed the august gathering. The guests of honour of the sessions were Dr. Kandiah Sriganeshan, Senior Lecturer, University of Jaffna, Sri Lanka, Dr. Vasuhi, Head of the Department, MS University, Tirunelveli, and Dr. Reshmi, Associate Professor, University of Pondicherry, Pondicherry.

The first session was the keynote address of our chief guest Dr. Kandiah Sriganeshan on Language and Linguistic in South Asian Literature which imparted valuable insights in the participants. The next two sessions was taken over by Dr. Vasuhi who gave a clear view of quest for identity in South Asian Countries followed by Dr. Reshmi who enlightened us in thematic concerns in Anglophone South Asian Literature.

30 participants presented papers on the thrust areas in South Asian Literature in the conference.